

A History Hunt - Franklin Roosevelt's New Deal

At Logan we have access to a database service called Gale Group. Although we access this collection of articles, videos, audio files and photos via the Internet, this database service is edited and accurate very much like a good library reference book. For this reason the Gale Group is an excellent place for research.

To access Gale Group go to our class website <http://daveforrest.net/US> --> Thursday December 19th --> Gale Group link and put in the password jimmy
