

Chapter 8 Lesson 1 The Roaring 20's

Page 122-126

Before you read:

Which car was produced by the assembly line?

Who was a popular musician during the 1920's?

As you read:

Who threatened Americans or scared Americans after World War 1?

What was the "Red Scare?"

What led to a wave of anti-immigrant fear after WW 1?

How did Congress restrict immigration in the 1920's?

How was the economy during the 1920's?

How did consumers benefit from the economy of the 1920's?

What is mass production?

What impact did mass production and the assembly line have on the price of manufactured goods?

What happened to the price of the Model T Ford between 1910 and 1924?

How did the affordable automobile change where people lived?

Which media did businesses use to advertise their products?

What is installment credit?

Why did consumers pay more than the original price when they bought a product using credit?

What was the movement of African Americans north called?

Which northern city did many African Americans move into?

What was the favorite style of music during the 1920's?

What was the Harlem Renaissance?

Read the Biography of Marcus Garvey and answer the following questions:

What types of discrimination did African Americans face in the 1920's?

What was the goal of Marcus Garvey's UNIA?

When Garvey became discouraged about African Americans gaining equality in America, where did he want African Americans to go?

What happened to Marcus Garvey toward the end of his life in the US?