

The Fall of China and the Korean War

Chapter 11 Lesson 3 pages 182-185

Before You Read:

1. Look at the titles and lesson headings. Predict what this chapter is going to be about.

2. Look at the map on page 184. What is the map showing?

As You Read:

1. In what year did the Chinese Communists take control of China?
2. Which two Chinese groups fought for control of China?
3. Who led the Communists?
4. Where did the Nationalist go after their defeat?
5. How did Americans react to the communist victory in China?
6. Did Stalin and Mao team up against the US and the West?
7. Where did the Cold War first turn hot?
8. In what year did the Korean War begin?
9. Which section of Korea did the Soviet Union control after World War 2?

10. Which section of Korea did the US keep troops in after World War 2?
11. Which parallel of latitude divided Korea in two?
12. Which part of Korea attacked the other part of Korea?
13. What did the UN Security Council decide to do after the surprise attack?
14. Where were most of the forces from that helped the South?
15. When did peace talks begin?
16. When was an armistice signed?
17. Where was a demilitarized zone set up?
18. Did Korea remain two nations, or become one nation after the Korean War?

Reading Maps. Look at the map on page 184 and answer the following questions:

1. Which South Korean city did the North Koreans not capture in September of 1950?
2. What was the name of the city, where US troops landed in 1950?
3. What country did the UN Forces reach in November of 1950?
4. According to the map key, which nation was fighting with the North Koreans in January of 1951?