

Entering the 21st Century – George W. Bush’s Policies
Chapter 20 Lesson 2 - Read Pages 330-333

Who was the Democratic Party nominee in the election of 2000?

What was George Bush’s previous political experience?

Was Bush a conservative or a liberal?

Which Party did Bush belong to?

Who won the popular vote in the election?

How many electoral votes does a candidate need to be elected President?

Which state was undecided in the election?

What problems were there in counting Florida’s vote?

What did the US Supreme Court rule, regarding recounting Florida’s ballots?

Who won the Presidency?

What problem was growing during the recession?

What economic policy did the President Bush propose to get out of the recession?

List two other examples of President Bush’s conservative policies:

1.

2.

What did the No Child Left Behind Education Act do?

What were some conservatives alarmed about?

What is nation building?

In which conflict did President Bush finally step in to provide a road map to peace?

How was President Bush's policy toward North Korea different than President Clinton's?

After You Read:

Pick one of President Bush's key Presidential policies that you read about. Explain what you liked or disliked about this policy in the area below.
