

Writing a Letter From the Manzanar Internment Camp

Imagine you were a Japanese American teenager in the Manzanar internment camp during World War 2. Look at the following photographs to gather details about what the internment camps were like. After you have gathered details on the organizer below, write a letter to a teen friend back home. Your letter should explain what daily life is like in the camp. In addition be sure to tell your friend how you feel about being sent to the camp, and what you miss most about home. 20-point assignment.
